What is NAKS?

NAKS stands for National Association for Korean Schools. The association is comprised of a general assembly made up of representatives from each of over 1000 Korean schools across the 50 states. Slate of officers are elected and appointed biannually to operate the organization on a day-to-day basis. Fiduciary responsibility and guidance of NAKS are also overseen by the Board of Directors. Fifty states are divided into 14 regions, which elect regional Presidents who also serve as Board of Directors along side of elected Board of directors.

What is the NAKS Mission?

1. Cultivate and Develop strong bonds of friendship among Korean Schools and instructions in Korean language, culture and history.
2. Educate Americans on the proper knowledge and understanding of Korea and its culture, history and language without discrimination based on color, creed, nationality, religion or sex.
3. Provide continuing education and training of Korean School teachers and principals.
4. Provide opportunity for teachers and principals to network, exchange ideas and share educational materials they have studied or developed.
5. Promote Korean language, culture and history by establishing speech and writing contests with scholarships.
6. Develop publications for teaching aids (text books, SAT II workbooks etc.) and training aids.
7. Examine and influence educational policies and practices of both US Department of Education and Ministry of Education of Korea to promote diplomacy and excellence in education of Korean Schools.
